Job Description

Smyrna Bible Church is looking to hire a Youth Ministry Pastor. We have fledgling programs in place and are looking for the right man to grow and develop them. The primary responsibility is to grow these programs both in the number of youths and in their spiritual growth.

- This is a part-time position however, as the Lord allows, if successful, may become full-time.
- In addition to attending church services, the initial time expectation is approximately 10 hours per week.
- The starting annual salary is $12,000.

Duties, Responsibilities and Spiritual Aspects

- Retain and attract youth
- Attend and participate in church services.
- Meet with the Sr. Pastor weekly and serve under his direction to ensure youth programs align with the overall church ministry and vision.
- Oversee, facilitate, and grow the church's youth ministry programs including Kids Club, Youth Group and Sunday school.
- Lead and assist the youth group leader with facilitation and planning of events and activities and meet with him regularly.
- Encourage the spiritual growth of students of all ages.
- Interact with students during church services.
- Develop positive relationships with students and their families.
- Share program plans and events on social media.
- Have a growing relationship with Christ
- Pray regularly for young people in the church and community.
- May be asked to lead congregational worship service at the request of the Sr. Pastor.

Additional responsibilities as time allows or the position becomes full-time

- Attend local youth events to engage with and build relationships in the community.
- Organize special youth events to be active in the community.
- Oversee the selection of and examine the curricula for all youth programs, events, and classes.
- Incorporate youth into various church ministries.
- Develop and manage volunteers by taking the time to consult, inspire and be a resource to them to promote effective ministry.
- Lead volunteers in the initiation and implementation of new ministry strategies.

Requirements

- Evident, born-again relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Must agree with both the IFCA and Smyrna Bible Church's statement of faith.
